Today's class

I compiled some readings which (I think) will give a perspective before starting 520. This time, I am going to pick three people to present these together with insights you may have obtained with 516 (time: 15 min max, + discussion):

- ▶ Intelligent Computer Assisted Language Learning (EAL, Heift, 2012)
<https://onlinelibrary.wiley.com/doi/pdf/10.1002/9781405198431.wbeal0548>
(speaker: William)
- ▶ "The promise of NLP and speech processing technologies in language assessment" (LTJ, Chapelle and Chung, 2010)
<http://journals.sagepub.com/doi/abs/10.1177/0265532210364405>
(speaker: Fatemeh)
- ▶ "Natural Language and Language Learning" (EAL, Meurers, 2013)
<https://onlinelibrary.wiley.com/doi/pdf/10.1002/9781405198431.wbeal0858>
(speaker: Yasin)
